ITALY IN A HURRY.

She Wants the New Orleans Affair Settled at Once

AND RECALLS HER MINISTER.

Baron Fava Will Go Back to Rome But the Officials at Washington Are Not Worrying Themselves About It—There Will Be No War Between Italy and the United States.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—Baron Fava, the Italian minister, has been recalled from the United States by his government on account of dissatisfaction in connection with the New Orleans affair. Baron Fava called at the state department Tuesday and withdrew his passport and other papers. The affairs of the Italian legation are now temporarily in charge of Marquis Imperiali de Francavilla, secretary of the legation, who has authority to transact current business only.

The reason given was that the "King of Italy was dissatisfied with the progress of adjustments between the two countries touching the New Orleans massacre." In his note to Secretary Blaine, Baron Fava informs the secretary that as the United States government has not given assurance that the murderers of the Italian subjects acquitted by American magistrates and murdered in prison while under the protection of the authorities of New Orleans, would be brought to justice, the Italian government has found itself under the very painful necessity of showing openly its dissatisfaction by recalling the minister of his majesty, King Humbert, from a country where the Italian representative is unable to obtain justice.

The baron's passport, of course, will be given to him at once. Baron Fava will leave for Italy in a short time.

The recall of Baron Fava puts an end to any further direct communication between the representative of Italy in this country and Secretary Blaine. Hereafter the state department will be obliged to communicate directly with the Italian government at Rome.

Little is talked about in Washington except the recall of Baron Fava by the Italian government. In the hotels, on the streets and in public clubs the matter is a subject of intense interest. Strange to say, in diplomatic and official circles, the same importance is not attached to Baron Fava's recall as in the public resorts. The fact that the Italian legation is to remain here and conduct the routine business that usually passes between governments, shows that diplomatic relations between the United States and Italy are not yet severed. The ministers of foreign governments, it is asserted in diplomatic circles, are frequently away for long periods and the routine business between governments is conducted by the attaches of legations, while important matters are directly handled by the secretary of state or the home governments, without the intervention of the legation. This is what, it is asserted, will now be done, while Italy remains unrepresented at Washington.

The matter of Baron Fava's recall is not regarded here generally as a serious question or one likely to provoke hostilities, or even to lead to complications that will not be unraveled by the deft hand of diplomacy. In fact there is a political significance attached to it that would suggest that the Italian politicians have not viewed American politics in vain. The ministerial crisis in Italy in which Signor Crispi, the prime minister, was overthrown in a recent event, which it is pointed out, throws some light on Baron Fava's recall. The present Italian ministry, ever since its assumption of the reins of government, have been opposed by the powerful minority party with Signor Crispi at its head. The killing of the Italians in New Orleans gave it the excited state of public feeling, a club with which to belabor the ministry. The tedious channels of diplomacy were too slow to satisfy the Italian people that justice would be done to their countrymen in the United States, and the government, to appease the populace and at the same time to show in a certain sense its disapproval of what it considered the lack of heart shown by the United States government in bringing the murderers of the Italians to justice, recalled Baron Fava.

Secretary Blaine and the state department officials are very reticent about making public any official statement concerning the withdrawal of Baron Fava. Secretary Blaine said last night that it would be manifestly improper for him, at this time, to express any opinion in the matter. It is believed, however, that the secretary is not alarmed at the turn affairs have taken and that he is confident that the difficulty is temporary and can be settled through the usual diplomatic channels.

A very high official, whose knowledge of diplomatic transactions under the present administration is the best and whose responsibility cannot be questioned, gave to the press last night the following statement which may be taken as representing the feelings of the administration concerning the withdrawal.

"Baron Fava, the Italian minister, notified the state department that under orders from Rome he was compelled to withdraw from his mission near this government. He does not, however, close the Italian legation, leaving Marquis Imperiali, the present secretary, to act as chargé d'affaires. This action on the part of the Italian minister is in no sense one of hostility to this government but merely indicates a certain degree of discontent on the part of the Italian ministry representing the New Orleans parish prison affair. Baron Fava has been on diplomatic duty in Washington for the past ten years, and his retirement will be much regretted, officially and socially. The highly sensational rumors pointing to a severance of diplomatic relations and possible war between the two countries as a result of Baron Fava's retirement are not believed to have any foundation in fact."

"It was," said a prominent official, "a move for home consumption." This view is the prevalent one in official circles. No excitement is observable among officials.

The subject of Baron Fava's recall was mentioned in the cabinet meeting, but it was not considered of sufficient importance to be discussed and "if it had not followed on the heels of the Mafia troubles in New Orleans," said the same high official quoted above, "would not have occasioned any stir at all."

Baron Fava must, according to diplomatic etiquette, present his letter of recall to President Harrison before severing his connection with the United States government. It is said by persons well versed in diplomatic matters, that a failure to present this letter would be a direct slight to the government. A minister, when about to present his letter of recall, is accompanied to the executive mansion by the secretary of state, and after the minister has presented his letter and made a few remarks explanatory of them, the president usually makes a short complimentary speech, expressing his regret at the minister's withdrawal and his hope that pleasant relations will continue between the two countries. It remains to be seen what will be done in this regard before Baron Fava leaves Washington.

A rumor was put in circulation yesterday that it had been reported from Rome that eighteen Americans have been arrested there and held as hostages. No confirmation of the report can be had at the state department. Assistant Secretary Adele said to a United Press reporter that so far as he was advised only two American citizens had been arrested in Italy within the last three months. One of these had been released and the other was arrested some time prior to the New Orleans affair.

MEXICO'S FOREIGN-BORN CITIZENS.

Only a Few Over 2,000 Naturalizations in Sixty-Three Years.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 1.—The foreign office has published a table showing the number of foreigners naturalized here since 1828, and it will occasion some surprise that the total in sixty-three years should not have exceeded 2,014. Of this number 1,147 were Spaniards. Other nationalities are as follows: French 203, Germans 172, Italians 158, Americans 146, Guatemalans 37, other Central Americans 39, English 12, Swiss 11, and a few each of Russians, Chileans, Austrians, Poles, Hungarians, Greeks, Turks and Chinamen.

The greatest number of persons naturalized in any one year was in 1844, when 237 persons took out papers. Very few Frenchmen were naturalized during the period of the empire, and no Austrians. Since Gen. Diaz became president the average number of foreigners yearly becoming citizens has been higher than any previous period in the history of the republic.

WILL DRILL A MILE

Just to See What There is Down at That Great Depth.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 1.—The Wheeling Development company, composed of local manufacturers who are anxious to discover natural gas in this vicinity, have drilled a well 4,108 feet deep on Boggs Run, a mile out of town. The drilling had been abandoned, but it will be resumed, and a hole punched on down till a depth of 5,800 feet, or one mile, is reached. This will be the deepest well in the United States, and will pass through the corniferous rock under which all the oil and gas found in Canada is located. The United States geological survey has decided to assist in bearing the expense for the sake of being permitted to procure samples of the strata passed through.

Asking Damages for False Imprisonment

CHICAGO, April 1.—Eugene Dunnivant, formerly a newsboy in this city, who a year ago completed a four-year term in the penitentiary for theft, yesterday began suit for $100,000 against Mr. Potter, president of the South Chicago Rolling Mill company. The plaintiff alleges that in order to break up an acquaintance between Dunnivant and Mr. Potter's daughter Mr. Potter with others conspired and secured his conviction on a false charge. Dunnivant also claims that an editor of a Chicago paper, who secured from him a complete statement of his imprisonment and his acquaintance with and friendship for Miss Potter was paid $15,000 to suppress its publication.

TROY, N. Y., April 1.—Cal McCarthy, of Jersey City, who has for over two years been the featherweight champion of America, last night surrendered the title to George Dixon, the colored boxer of Boston, who has also won the featherweight championship of England. Dixon knocked McCarthy out in the twenty-second round.

DEFIANCE, O., April 1.—George Bonman, aged 38, carpenter by trade, and well-to-do, residing eight miles south of Defiance, was found dead in a vacant house last night with a bullet hole in his head. A revolver lay by his side. No cause known for the suicide.

AMONG THE COKERS.

No Further Rioting in the Pennsylvania District.

SERIOUS TROUBLE FEARED.

The sheriff and courts of Westmoreland and Fayette counties called on to break the strike.—The Rochester Strike Ended—Other Labor News.

PITTSBURG, April 1.—There was no rioting in the coke regions yesterday and all is quiet. A raid was expected at Moorhead during the night and several hundred strikers marched past the works before midnight, but did not return. The works are in operation with a reduced force, and an effort will be made to keep them running. The workers are arming and serious trouble is expected before the strike is over.

With the exception of President Gompers all the members of the executive board of the American Federation of Labor are in the city for the purpose of holding a conference on the critical situation in the coke region.

A point Pleasant, Pa., special to The Times says: General Manager Lynch said: "We have invoked the powers of the sheriffs and courts of Westmoreland and Fayette counties to break this strike. If these powers are not sufficient the H. C. Frick Coke company will then take a hand. We will operate our works, and if necessary, we will bring into the region uniformed men, armed and prepared for battle, and they will be ordered to shoot and shoot to kill anyone who interferes with our men or our arrangements."

"The Frick Coke company is not going out with guns and clubs to drive the strikers to work and the Frick Coke company will not permit the strikers to go out with guns and clubs and drive men who want to work away from our plant. That's our position."

Everything was quiet at Morewood yesterday.

The strikers held a mass meeting at Connellsville yesterday afternoon and were pledged financial support by the citizens.

The injunctions issued on the labor leaders at Uniontown were served on several yesterday, but so far none of the leaders have been arrested.

Sweating System in New York.

BOSTON, April 1.—The legislative committee on public health began a hearing on the sweating system of manufacturing clothing in New York, which was made the subject of a recent special message by Governor Russell John Crowley, of Boston, general secretary of the Clothing Operatives National Union, testified that he had been to New York and found that several prominent clothing dealers of Boston had their goods manufactured in New York tenement houses under unwholesome conditions. The rooms were extremely filthy. In one room measuring 12 by 9 feet there were thirty people of both sexes. The air was foul. Upstairs were a number of children, the eldest 10 years old, entirely nude, playing about the floor. Unwholesome sweating was found in the establishments at Nos. 28 Attorney street, 93 Christie street, 162 Division street and 136 Division street. This was in November last.

Isaac Mullen, state inspector of factories in Massachusetts, had been sent to New York to examine the system. He testified that at 67 Reade street buckets of slops were standing about and the rooms were crowded with people. At No. 88 Reade street the operatives were Poles who received sixty-eight cents for making a pair of pantaloons. The goods were shipped direct from the big clothing houses in Boston.

The committee then adjourned for the day.

Rooster Clothing Strike Ended.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 1.—The locked-out clothing cutters held another meeting Saturday morning and passed resolutions repudiating the Knights of Labor and the leaders and denouncing the boycott. The manufacturers have determined to receive the applications of the men for work and the lockout is therefore at an end.

Will Strike for Eight Hours.

BOSTON, April 1.—At a secret meeting of the carpenters' union last evening, it is said that the expressed feeling against the Carpenters' and Builders' Association was strong, and that the sentiment was in favor of taking radical action. One member stated after the meeting that there would be a strike for eight hours this spring.

Let All Help a Little.

The Lyceum Bureau provided Maysville with a series of splendid entertainments this season.

In order to secure these lectures and concerts the Bureau had to give a guarantee and they lack about $200 to quit even on the series.

The last of the entertainments will be the concert to-morrow night by the Schubert Quartette, and the people of Maysville and vicinity should crowd the opera house and do all they can to help the Bureau out. The general admission has been reduced to 50 cents, and 35 cents will admit you to a seat in the balcony.

The Quartette is one of the leading concert companies on the road and the entertainment will be a musical treat. Let all attend. Standing room should be in demand.

Keep Before the Public.

To a certain extent general advertising creates a want. It announces new things and familiarizes the public with old ones. General advertising is of great value to the advertiser in keeping an established article before the public as in introducing a new one. The most successful business men realize this, and they never let the public forget their existence. The oft-repeated assertion that advertisements are not read is proved to be a lie of the most senseless kind by the advertiser's record of results.—Journalist.

Another Old Citizen Gone.

Miss Louisa Claybrook died this morning at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Robert Terhune, near Tuckahoe. She was in the eighty-second year of her age. Funeral to-morrow at 2 p.m., at Mr. Terhune's home. Services by Elder W. W. Hall.

Deceased was born in Amelia County, Va., and moved to this county in 1816. She was the last of ten children.

Mr. C. W. Lurley, of the Ashland House, Lexington, is in town.

FROM "THE STATE OF LEWIS."

Items of Interest Gleaned by the Bulletin's Vanceburg Representative.

Correspondence of BULLETIN.

VANCEBURG, March 31, 1891.—Business is dull here on account of the deplorable condition of our roads, which in many places, are impassable.

This county is badly in need of a new system to make county roads and our next Representative will be favorable to some new plan, as Judge Pugh's advalorem tax system was defeated in the Con. Con. Your correspondent predicts that the road question will be the leading issue in the coming contest for the Legislative seat in this county.

The Alliance seems to favor Mr. John W. Boyd, of Toluksboro, as their candidate for Representative. He is a man of the people, possessing excellent social qualities, and if entered in the race will be difficult to defeat. He unquestionably would make Lewis County a good Representative.

Judge J. S. Pugh contemplates locating in Portsmouth, O., or Louisville, Ky., when the Con. Con. adjourns. He is a splendid lawyer and a good citizen and we would regret to lose him.

George Lindsey, a patrol from the Columbus, O., penitentiary, was given ten days and twenty-five dollars by Judge Fryer Monday for carrying concealed a deadly weapon. Lindsey was in the pen when Fidelity Harper was first sent there, and through Harper's influence received a lease on a large tract of land near here. The Sheriff had summoned a jury under a writ of ejectment on Lindsey's behalf and while they were on the land he discovered that Lindsey was armed and forthwith arrested him.

Mrs. Charles Goodwin, of Esculapia, died last week of pneumonia. She was an admirable and exemplary lady, who was loved by all her acquaintances.

Burns Chapter No. 74, R. A. M., at this place, is enjoying quite a revival.

The smiling countenance and "fog-horn laugh" of W. C. Halbert may be seen and heard at a very great distance since the arrival of a nine-pound boy of the D. B. Hill type of Democracy at his home.

Mr. Edward Sample and family start for Jackson, Breathitt County, this State, to-day.

The weather appears to be getting back to first principles, as it has been somewhat eleventh for the past three years.

The equity docket of the Circuit Court continues to keep pace with the marriage bond book of the County Court. One is the evidence that two hearts coalesce; the other that two hearts are in dire distress.

The contractors on the new railroad on Kinneconick Creek are working a large force of hands. We will soon have fifteen miles of new railroad in this county. Ever since the commencement of the C. & O. our county has been improving.

There is no small city in this State that has a better growth than this place. Our improvement is gradual and on what appears to be a firm basis. There is no "boom" and we do not want any.

We will soon have a new and handsome hotel near the depot. Mr. T. B. Harrison, we learn, has let the contract for same.

Mr. A. H. Parker is very sick, and this is the second attack within a few months, of heart trouble.

Tourists.

Whether on pleasure bent or business, should take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectively on the kidneys, liver and other forms of sickness. For sale in 50-cent and $1 bottles by all leading drug-gists.

River News.

The Hudson and Bonanza had a little test of speed Sunday between Ironton and Ashland, and the former got left.

The Bonanza for Pomeroy and Stanley for Charleston will pass up to-night. The Keystone State and Sherley will pass down this evening and the Boston to-night.

The Stanley and Congo had a lively time on their down trip Monday evening. They "locked horns" at Cabin Creek, but the Stanley showed her superior running qualities and was leading her rival on their arrival here.

Profit-Sharing.

Profit-sharing between owners and employees wherever adopted has proved of great benefit to all concerned. Men pecuniarily interested in the success of their employers do not strike, are more diligent, more saving and economical in the use of materials, more careful in the use of tools and machinery. The Ingersoll Sergeant Drill Company, of New York, which adopted this system several years ago, recently paid a dividend of $6,000 to the employees in its shops and offices, a larger sum than heretofore because of the considerable increase of its business during 1890. When this plan is generally adopted, labor agitators will be compelled to work like their fellow craftsmen, for their present profitable vocation will be useless.—Manufacturers' Record.

Here and There.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brenner returned last night from Madisonville and Cincinnati.

Mrs. Frank Foster, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Greenwood.

Mr. S. A. Wood, the Cincinnati artist, is in town to-day, shaking hands with his many friends.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.

Abel Rees, A Nonagenarian, Crosses The Narrow Ford.

Abel Rees had a green old age and preserved through ninety-one years a large measure of all his faculties. No one enjoyed meeting an old friend more than he did. It was the Indian summer of his life, and after these reunions were over he seemed satisfied with earth. At any rate, without suffering, on the morning of the 30th of March, he attained to look upon the beginning of eternal peace.

For long years tied to the world, but by the thread of an hour old men do seem happy—behold them all memories faint, save those of childhood, sprightly youth and vigorous manhood—before them the narrow ford and the sun dawning upon the clouds on the other shore.

The remains were taken from the old home to Shannon Church where Rev. Dr. Anderson conducted the funeral service Tuesday. He paid a graceful tribute to the deceased, while the choir rendered appropriate music.

The following persons acted as pall bearers: H. Crayrat, Allen Grover, Jno. M. Ball, Jas. Brattin, Geo. Styles, G. Killpatrick.

The remains were laid gently away in Shannon cemetery by the side of his wife, who had been resting in the grave for 34 years. "Life's blessings all enjoyed, life's labors done, serenely to his final rest has passed." Texts for the funeral discourse were from Job 14 c. 14 verse, and John 9 c. and 4 verse. Hymns during the services—"Nearer My God To Thee," "I would Not Live Always," "Thou Art Gone To The Grave." Mrs. Len Y. Browning presided at the organ, giving these songs a peculiar sweetness. Mr. John Porter acted as Funeral Director. The surviving family consists of two daughters and three sons. Winchester Rees, aged 81 the only brother, survives.

SHOE Factories.

A Traveling Man Talks of These Enterprises and Gives a Few Facts

That Ought to Interest All Those Who Are Seeking Profitable Investments.

"Why don't the people here in Maysville go to work and start some shoe factories?" asked a well-known Cincinnati traveling man of the BULLETIN yesterday.

"That's just what the BULLETIN has been trying to get them to do for several years," was the reply. "We became convinced long ago that such enterprises could be made just as profitable here as elsewhere."

"Made profitable? Of course they could," continued the gentleman. "I am surprised the people here have not engaged in this business long ago. Now, look at Portsmouth. Ten or twelve years ago that place didn't have a single shoe factory. Now she has six in successful operation. If the business wasn't a pretty profitable one you wouldn't see new factories springing up, as they have at Portsmouth. Why, the largest factory up there—Drew, Selby & Co.'s—cleared $60,000 on last year's business, and one of the others operated by Russell, Richardson & Titus cleared $25,000. Both these firms have been compelled to enlarge the capacity of their establishments in order to accommodate their increasing trade. The first named firm recently moved into a large new factory, built by themselves, and Russell, Richardson & Titus, I learn, have secured ground and will at once put up buildings of their own, and much larger than what they now occupy. And then, there's the Excelsior. It was started only a year or so ago—on a capital of $10,000, I think. Now, the Excelsior employs about fifty-two hands. It was started by men who had been working in the other factories. Oh, there's no question about the business being a profitable one. You can't go up to Portsmouth, and buy any stock in her shoe factories. Why? Because it's not for sale."

"I'm surprised that Maysville people haven't turned their attention to shoe manufacturing ere this. How much money would it take? Well, a factory could be started on less than $25,000, but that sum would give the enterprise a solid footing. And every shoe made in such a factory could be sold within forty miles of Maysville."

"Another thing about such enterprises is, they afford employment to young and old, male and female."

"If the people who own real estate in Maysville and her suburbs want to invest in something that will prove profitable, and at the same time greatly enhance the value of their property, let them get together and start some shoe factories. If you get one, you'll find others will follow in a few years."

We hope the above will receive the earnest consideration it deserves. There is food for thought in what the gentleman says. What is true of these Portsmouth shoe factories is also true of similar enterprises at Washington C. H., O., and Williamsburg, O. The New England States have been the center of the shoe manufacturing industry for years, but there is no longer any necessity for the Ohio Valley to pay tribute to that section.

Ripley is following the example set by Portsmouth, Washington C. H. and Williamsburg, and is even now engaged in fitting up a factory of this kind. Let Maysville keep step with these other places."

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says John Robinson, Jr., is receiving many congratulations over the arrival of twin daughters at his home. It will be remembered that while the Robinsons were here last spring, young Jack and Miss May Smith, daughter of ex-Mayor Amor Smith, stole a march on their friends and were quietly married at Aberdeen.

CAPTAIN W. L. MARSHALL, who was raised near Washington, will have charge of the display made by the Government Engineer Corps at the Chicago World's Fair.

THERE'S no telling what new capers the Mafia may cut at New Orleans, but it will be safe to bet that it will never again take any stock in the murder of a Chief of Police.

THE "Hathaway" fence wire is the most complete thing of the kind ever made. Can be used for fencing, gates, summer houses, arbors, trailing vines, &c. Frank Owens Hardware Company, agents.

TO-MORROW, Friday and Saturday will be grand opening days at the Bee Hive. Do not fail to visit and inspect the most complete and most beautiful display of millinery goods ever shown in Maysville. All are invited.

CABLE DISPATCHES.

Death of Earl Granville in London.

MASSACRE REPORT CONFIRMED

It is Also Believed That in Addition to the Four Hundred and Seventy Slain Two Hundred More Soldiers Have Met the Same Fate—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, April 1.—Earl Granville is dead. Earl Granville, whose family name was Leveson-Gower, has been a tower of strength to the Liberal cause in Great Britain. He was born seventy-six years ago, and succeeded to his title and estates fifty years ago, when he was 26 years old. He early linked his fortunes with those of the Liberal party, and when Gladstone first came to power in 1868, Earl Granville, then 53 years old, became colonial secretary and later secretary of state for foreign affairs.

EARL GRANVILLE.

He went out of office with his party and came in with it again in 1880, when he again took the foreign portfolio and kept it for the five years' lifetime of that government. In Gladstone's last government, which came in 1886, Earl Granville's name does not appear, the Earl of Rosebery (Rothschild's son-in-law), taking Granville's old place in the foreign office. Earl Granville leaves a son and heir of his titles and estates, a son of his old age, Lord Leveson-Gower, who will not be 20 till next year.

Massacre Report Confirmed.

CALCUTTA, April 1.—Official dispatches received here by the government officers confirm the report of the massacre of Ghoorkas at Manipur in the province of Assam.

Fifteen Goorkhas who escaped from the massacre have arrived at Kohima. They report that Mr. and Mrs. Grimwood, Golskene and Simpson have escaped into Cachar, where the natives were becoming restless. The party included twelve Europeans. It is supposed that Commissioner Quinton was seized at Grimwood's house, four miles distant from the cantonment of the main Goorkha guard at Langthabat. The attack on the British native troops was made in overwhelming force by 10,000 irregulars Kuki levies in the service of the Manipur government.

In addition to the disaster at Manipur, it is believed that a force of British troops, composed of a detachment of 200 soldiers of the Bengal infantry and about eighty Ghoorkas, who were marching from Shillong to Manipur in order to reinforce the Forty-second and Forty-fourth Ghoorkha light infantry which composed the escort of Chief Commissioner Quinton, have also been attacked and have shared the fate of their comrades at Manipur.

International Miners' Conference.

PARIS, April 1.—The international miners' conference convened in this city yesterday. There were present ninety-nine delegates, representing 40,167 miners. England is represented by forty-one delegates, Germany by nineteen, Belgium by fifteen, and France by twenty-three. One delegate from Bohemia represents a constituency of 100,000 workmen. Delegate Philip of the Labor Exchange of LePuy, welcomed the international representatives of the mining industry to France and Paris.

Flour Advances in London.

LONDON, April 1.—The Leeds Millers' association has advanced the price of flour 1s 6d, making a total advance of 5s 6d during the month of March. This advance in the price of flour is due to the rise in the price of English and foreign wheats.

Reward for Balcioff's Murderer.

LONDON, April 1.—The Bulgarian government has offered a reward of £1,000 for the capture of the murderer of M. Balcioff, the minister of finance. The government has also pensioned the widow of M. Balcioff.

STEAMER WRECKED.

The City of Detroit Sinks in Twenty Feet of Water.

DETROIT, April 1.—The steamer City of Detroit, of the Detroit and Cleveland line of steamers, went on a rock at the lime kilns' crossing in the Detroit river at 12:15 o'clock yesterday morning during a fearful storm. The shock stove a hole in her bottom and she gradually sank to the bottom in twenty feet of water.

The steamer had seventy passengers and 125 tons of freight on board. There was no commotion among the passengers, as few were aware anything had happened until all danger was passed.

The passengers were taken off by the steamer Riverside and returned to this city. The vessel lies on the bottom in twenty feet of water, and wreckers have been sent from Detroit to raise her.

Colored Boys Steal an Engine.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., April 1.—A number of colored boys, none over 12 years of age, took possession of a Pennsylvania Central engine yesterday morning while it was standing in the yards, and ran it off the tracks, across Court avenue, startling the whole neighborhood. One of the lads, giving the name of Ed. Gilbert, was captured.

MINER'S MAXIMS!

"Kindle a candle at bath ends, it will soon be done."

The truth of this old Scotch maxim is best known to those who have personally tried the experiment.

High prices paid for poor shoes lead to the same result.

Shoes can never be judged by their looks, any more than human beings, as a beautiful outward appearance often conceals an unsubstantial and decaying foundation.

Therefore, it becomes necessary to have some one, on whose judgment and word you can rely.

MINER bears the enviable reputation of being a dealer who correctly estimates the value of his shoes.

The shoes sold at MINER'S, not only fit the foot, but the eye and purse as well.

Those who persist in purchasing unreliable goods, just because they are cheap, are seeking their own destruction financially.

Good Shoes can rarely be bought for less than they are worth; but they may be purchased at reasonable prices.

When you are in need of Good Shoes at a reasonable price, don't forget MINER, who has been

APRIL 2nd, 3d and 4th, the GRAND MILLINERY OPENING at the Bee Hive takes place. It will be by far the grandest and most complete display of MILLINERY GOODS and Novelties ever shown in Maysville.

A very large number of elegant French Pattern Hats and Bonnets will be displayed; also everything new and stylish in the line of Trimmings.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend, and MISS ALICE SUEA, who has charge of the BEE HIVE'S Millinery Department, would be glad to have her friends and former patrons call. Prices very reasonable and everything fresh, new and stylish.

A magnificent line of Children's Caps and Hats in Silk, Dimity, Embroidery, Lace and Mull will also be exhibited.

Don't fail to attend, and remember the dates, April 2nd, 3d and 4th.
